AMIDOL-1 / AMIDOL-1 / Subject

1. According to AMIDOL-19 (DOI 4 May), AMIDOL-1 once more is giving serious thought to contracting marriage with Subject.

2. According to AMIDOL-19, AMIDOL-1 suffers pangs of conscience and has premonitions of hell. What he has in mind is a church wedding with all the trimmings. Since Subject's previous marriage was not solemnized by the Church, AMIDOL-1's conscience appears unburdened.

3. AMIDOL-19 claims that AMIDOL-1 brushes off allegations about Subject's alleged affairs with Fulgencio Batista as mere calumny. He does not know whether AMIDOL-1 has ever asked Subject to confirm or deny the rumor.

4. The root of the trouble, as AMIDOL-19 sees it, is that AMIDOL-1 in the person of Subject is encountering a seasoned pro who plays with his emotions at will and who exploits his naivete which is that of a 14 year old. AMIDOL-1, in fashioning personal relationships, is unable to make adjustments to the circumstance that, being a person of some importance, his personal affections are not always cultivated on purely unselfish grounds.

5. AMIDOL-19 claims that Subject's former husband, Roger Hermillo's Hoja, Lavernois, is attempting to blackmail AMIDOL-1 and that some of AMIDOL-1's seemingly closest associates may be harboring similar intentions.

6. RECENTLY restated the position of KUBARK as one of non-intervention. Long as matrimony is kept in abeyance. Conversely, marriage and ensuing scandal would force us to re-assess our position and, in extremis, might force KUBARK to withdraw its backing of AMIDOL.

7. AMIDOL-19 expressed the view that AMIDOL-1 would probably forego marriage if made aware of KUBARK's position as stated above. He rejoined that AMIDOL-1, should he solicit our views (but not otherwise), would be told just that.

8. CURRIN is hereby authorized to state KUBARK's position along the lines indicated in Para 6 if the occasion presents itself.
