3. A-1 was advised the Liberenc representative is standing by in case he is needed. Should A-1 desire the presence of the representative in Managua he should contact us.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Telephone Conversation Between AM-BIDDY-1 and Martin Ferrer

4. A-1 was reminded we have not as yet received the budget for last month. A-1 commented he had asked his secretary to mail it a few days ago. A-1 was asked to check again to make sure it was mailed. A-1 was advised the money has been deposited and should be in his account by the end of the month.

DATE: 28 March 1964, 1430 hours

5. A-1 was asked to give us the address of the Tampa barge. A-1 said he would have it for Monday.

1. AMBIDDY-1 commented that the meeting between Carl Jenkins, AMJAWA-1 and AMBIDDY-1 went off very satisfactorily. The first operations were discussed and according to A-1, Carl was very pleased. A-1 did not go into specific details but stated he had shown Carl blueprints of the first operation. At the meeting A-4 presented another plan which calls for the assassination of Castro or some high official at Playa Giron on 17 April, the anniversary of the Bay of Pigs.

6. It was suggested to A-1 not to broach the subject of the naval base in Nicaragua with General Somoza but rather to let General Somoza think it is my inquiries made concerning the base's operation to provide cover that the base is there for Somoza's own meat packing business.

2. A-1 plans to leave for Nicaragua early part of next week. From Nicaragua A-1 intends to visit Costa Rica. A-1 was asked to check in with us before his departure.
