

kindex[®]

< Scan QR to view this original record online, or visit <https://jfk.kindex.org/s/444834>

Title: 157-10014-10178_p118.png

Category: Uncategorized

Provenance:

Person:

Date:

TOP SECRET

| | |
|---|---|
| 62 | 12 of this sort of thing that took place in the early sixties, |
| 1 your experience in the State Department and the Treasury | 13 which I guess was predicated on the belief that something like |
| 2 Department, and also your recent service on the Rockefeller | 14 that could be done in exceptional circumstances without its |
| 3 Commission. But I wondered specifically, in reference to the | 15 being surfaced and being connected with the US. And I think |
| 4 assassination area, where we faced the need to tie up our | 16 even those who believed that such action was morally proper |
| 5 investigations as soon as possible, and perhaps make some | 17 and might have been in the best interests of both the US and |
| 6 recommendations as soon as possible, do you have any specific | 18 the world would think that the costs were too heavy if it was |
| 7 suggestions? | 19 ever traced back to the US. And the record seems to show that |
| 8 Mr. Dillon. No, I don't think so. I think that the record | 20 it does get traced back. So I think that there will be a |
| 9 has shown that this is the type of thing that the US | 21 general agreement among those who are the type of people who |
| 10 Government or any of its branches cannot and should not engage | 22 would ordinarily think that such a thing should not be thought |
| 11 in. And I doubt very much that there will be any repetition | 23 of as US Policy. |
| | 24 Mr. Baron. Are there any institutional changes that you |

25 would suggest to prevent the use of assassination as a tool

TOP SECRET