ARNOLD Meeting in Miami, 25 June 1964

4. During the rest of the meeting ARNOLD-1 appeared to be somewhat dejected and preoccupied. It is my opinion that he is nearing the point that makes it advisable to use the remarks made concerning the existence of these photographs.

SUBJECT: Photographs of Adelaide Padron

1. During a lull in the meeting I took ARNOLD-1 aside (as instructed) and told him it would be best for all concerned to take Adelaide out of PRIMUS as he had suggested. I mentioned to him there was a growing number of reports of Adelaide finding their way to Washington, making it increasingly difficult for us to protect his rear.

5. As the meeting was about to end, ARNOLD-1 asked me, "Do you really have some immoral pictures of me, Martin?" Turning again I said "Yes. These photographs had come into our possession plus much more."
