Remedy: Headquarters will cease discussing oper- ational plans inside U. S. and insist on passing intel abroad.

above field grade level either at standstill or un- willing. Why is it good people do not flock to AM- WORLD's colors, especially AMBID-1 Pilot? Among reasons most frequently mentioned, AMBID-1's al- leged unwillingness to delegate authority and ten- dency to surround himself with dregs of exile com- munity which repels good elements. Sierra and Castillo, who above average, have already quit.

AMBID-1 has consistently ignored our advice to batten down hatches and prepare for major CIA cleanup, especially post-Pilon. Has so-called total security control (Major Gomez) must be deleted.

b. Political Action: Other than what taken in hand by AMBID-1 personally, media output of de- plorably low quality. AMBID-1 blames goofed of AMBID-1 Pilot.

e. Morale Situation: Poor, except maybe among Castillo's followers, trying out for role of Cuban Guevara follow suit. Charisma no substitute for poor general ability. AMBID-1's disinclination set- ting poor example.

c. Operational Planning: June performance below par despite VAS training and Jenkins' consultation. AMBID-1's choice of target in Pinar del Rio ill-con- ceived and slipshod.

f. Adelaide: Clear indications she suspects him and is preparing to move into your of establishment to treat her unreservedly, withholding nothing. Either

d. Operational Security: Virtually non-existent. Two- strike argument into Cuba and Punta Indio, origi- nally scheduled for June 1964, prematurely blown and Cuban reception committees presumably lying in wait. Prolific early rumor indicates likelihood proposed operation widely known in AMWORLD
