SECRET RYBAT

15 May 64

Report # DD-068.

To: AMTUM

From: AMOTUM

Subject: Activities.

Source: Friend of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], who is living with [REDACTED] as his mistress. Information acquired from [REDACTED], a very close friend of [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] had been woken at 5 AM by someone who gave him the news about the [REDACTED] attack against Cabo Cruz sugar mill in Oriente province. When [REDACTED] got the news he almost had a stroke. He was hysterical, shouting and hitting the walls with his hands. [REDACTED] was trying to calm [REDACTED], but [REDACTED] was shouting and screaming that he had been betrayed.

[REDACTED] said: "I cannot take this betrayal! These people think of me as an idiot but I am going to show them the opposite! They can't do this to me!"

Source states that Marta [REDACTED] is one of the persons who knows most about [REDACTED] intimate or personal affairs, and that Marta has friendly relations with [REDACTED], sister of [REDACTED], who is now living with [REDACTED] as his mistress.

On that same morning, 13 May 64, [REDACTED] left for New York. He said he was going there in connection with the betrayal of which he had been the victim. [REDACTED]

According to source, Marta [REDACTED] informed her that on the night of 12 May 64 [REDACTED] made a phone call to [REDACTED] (first-name) right from her house (Marta [REDACTED] house), and [REDACTED] said that everything was normal.

When [REDACTED] travels, he frequently travels under the name of [REDACTED].

SECRET RYBAT

The next day, 13 May 64, day of the raid against Cabo Cruz sugar mill, [REDACTED] returned to Marta [REDACTED] house and told Marta that
