DISPATCH

ORA in a more favorable bargaining position.

TO: Chief of Station, JMWAVE

3. We counseled SAMBORA to negotiate a hard contract which would encompass at least the following terms:

FROM: Deputy Chief, WE (Special Affairs)

a. He would not work under nor be responsible to MOLE but only to the highest echelons of AM-WORLD hierarchy.

SUBJECT: AMWORLD - Possible Basis for Entente between AMBIDDY-1 and SAMBORA

b. Full access to all files, bases, information needed to perform a professional job.

ACTION REQUIRED: Guidelines

1. We advised SAMBORA at a Washington meeting with him, 16 June 1964, that from the way things look to us he had painted himself into a corner from which he could not extricate himself. Another error was to have permitted someone like MOLE to block his path to the AMWORLD hierarchy. This is in retrospect, however, all water over the dam.

c. The complete and unhesitating support of AM-BIDDY-1 in all security matters.

If he is unwilling to accept these terms or offers any restrictions or conditions SAMBORA has our permission to turn in his badge and bid AMBIDDY-1 a fond adieu.

2. If SAMBORA is to perform his functions as a First conceived, there should be no AMBIDDY-1 and arrive at a new understanding. SAMBORA was informed that we intend to meet AMBIDDY-1 before SAMBORA returns to Miami. At this meeting we intend to state in no uncertain terms that the security of the organization is in a deplorable condition. This perhaps may have the effect of placing SAMB-
