3. The ADELAIDA arrived in Monkey Point as they were leaving for the States (21 June).

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Telephone Conversation Between AM-BIDDY-1 and Martin Ferrer

4. A-1 inquired if there were any outstanding problems. Martin evasively replied that he preferred not to discuss it over the phone. A-1 then asked if we intended to dispose of "Jo-Jo" and "Fifi" during the summer and mentioned we would be disposed to discuss anything which A-1 feels is important.

DATE: 22 June 1964 at 1130 hours

5. A-1 noted he expects to leave for Central America by the end of next week.

1. AMBIDDY-1, sounding somewhat tired and with a bad cold, mentioned that he would like to advance the date of the meeting to 23 June 1964. A-1 advised there are some administrative matters which have to be resolved in Managua and other problems in Miami that he would like to discuss with "Enrique". A-1 then intends to return to Miami.

2. In this case A-1 was notified that we (Cherry and Martin) would hold the meeting with him on 23 June 1964 and that Carl could talk with him and AMJAVA-4 on the morning of 24 June. A-1 was advised that this is a routine meeting in which many items would be discussed, e.g., the broad reorganization that A-1 had mentioned. There was nothing of a critical nature.
